

Withdraw agreement for reassessment of determination

Use this form to withdraw your agreement for a reassessment of redress.

Withdrawing your agreement for a reassessment

When you withdraw your agreement for a reassessment of your redress application, the reassessment will no longer proceed and your current determination will remain in place.

You can tell us you want to withdraw your agreement for a reassessment by either:

- completing and returning this form to the National Redress Scheme (by mail or online), OR
- calling us on 1800 737 377, Monday to Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. If you are overseas call +61 3 6222 3455 and press 7 to be transferred to the National Redress Scheme.

The reassessment of your current determination will be withdrawn from the date this completed and signed form is received, or if you call, on that date.

If now is not the right time for you proceed with a reassessment, you have up to 30 June 2027 to apply for a reassessment.
